

Partner With Us!

We are empowering the next generation of transformative leadership in Los Angeles:

Together, we can close the leadership gap to strengthen our communities.

-  Hire a Public Ally Apprentice and become part of a network of community based organizations who are committed to empowering and creating economic opportunities for the next generation of community leadership in Los Angeles.
-  Increase your capacity to serve the Los Angeles community while maximizing resources and staffing costs. (Organizations save approximately 20,000 by hiring an Ally.)
-  Gain an extension of your staff who can bring over 300 hours of training in community engagement and Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) to your work with the community.
-  Get individualized support in mentoring emerging community leaders to develop professional skills while helping to enhance your organization's ability to serve communities in Los Angeles.

You are a GREAT Candidate for Partnership If:

- ▶ Your organization is a 501c3 or Public Entity
- ▶ You are able to budget a minimum of $15,000 Per First Year Ally, or $20,000 Per Second Year Ally Intern Position.
- ▶ You can make a 10-Month commitment to ensuring your Ally Intern receives the most competent training and education to prepare for nonprofit sector employment.
